Neighborhood Happenings

What Remains Group Show. Closes July 25. The Soap Factory, 518 2nd St SE.

What Remains, an annual group show, explores the Soap Factory's past, present, and future, from its construction as a warehouse in 1882 to its present-day role as a gallery in our thriving community. Participating artists will not only explore the space's history, but the life of an artist's work, which shifts over time from conception to exhibition to its final fate, either thrown in the trash or nailed to a wall.

NorthEast Dog Parade. July 30, 6:15 pm. Northeast Business District.

Owners and costumed dogs are invited to picnic in Chute Square at 5 pm, then assemble for the parade at 6 pm. Officer Elliot Wong will escort the parade throughout the business district, starting at Chute Square and ending in front of Red Stag, Key North, and Popular Front. Stick around after the parade to socialize and shop with your pooch while dog friendly vendors sell their wares, 6:30-8 pm. Brought to you by the Northeast Business Association. Visit NortheastMinneapolis.com for details.
