September Events Calendar Released

Fall is here and so is a new line up of MCC events! This month features some old favorites such as Last Tuesday Happy Hour at Red Stag and Duplicate Bridge, as well as some great new activities such as a presentation from AgeWell and a tour of a fascinating new exhibit at the Regis Center for Art. All MCC members will receive a mailing this week but you can go to our website now for details and to register.

Calling All Hula Guys and Gals!

We are still looking for volunteers for the Guthrie's Luau-themed, end of summer appreciation party for the Education Department's Teaching Artists, Interns, and Volunteers to thank them for all of the great work they do. We need help with event set up as well as appetizer donations. Join us this Friday, August 21st anytime between 2 pm and 6 pm to help out. If you are interested in volunteering please e-mail:

Member-to-Member Volunteer Site Launched

Need some grocery shopping done? Meals delivered? Someone to water your plants? The solution is here: Mill City Commons is officially launching its Member-to-Member Volunteer Program this week! We are using an innovative and easy to use website to connect members with particular volunteer needs with other members who can provide them. To join please click here. Once you've reached the site please provide your e-mail address on the right hand side of the page. You will be provided with instructions for setting a password and signing in within 24 hours. If you have volunteer needs you would like filled please e-mail emilyhutchinson@millcitycommons.org
