

Your neighborhood for a lifetime.

MILL CITY COMMONS

WWW.MILLCITYCOMMONS.ORG

December 14, 2009

MILL CITY MUSINGS

Mill City Commons Presents Innovative Lecture Series— Age: Wide Angle

As part of our commitment to providing unique resources in the Mill District, Mill City Commons is pleased to present a new, innovative lecture series, Age: Wide Angle in partnership with the Library Foundation of Hennepin County. Held every Tuesday evening in February and March, the Age: Wide Angle lecture series offers a fresh perspective on the topic of age and aging by prominent arts leaders who will explore the role age plays in their field of expertise or their own artistic lives. Speakers include choreographer James Sewell, conductor Philip Brunelle, photographer (and MCC member) Laura Crosby, composer Libby Larsen, dance activist (and MCC member) Sage Cowles, author Faith Sullivan, actor Richard Ooms, MIA director Kaywin Feldman, graphic designers (and MCC members) Mary K Bauman and Will Hopkins, and many others.

Held at the Central Library in Pohlad Hall (300 Nicollet Mall, Minneapolis, MN 55401), the programs are free and open to the public. Seating is first come, first served. Doors open at 6:15 and programs begin at 7 PM.

Age: Wide Angle is co-presented by Mill City Commons and the Library Foundation of Hennepin County, and made possible by the generous support of our sponsors: Target, Gentle Transitions, AgeWell, and Gittleman Management.

Community partners include: The Loft Literary Center, VocalEssence, Hopkins/Baumann, MacPhail Center for Music, James Sewell Ballet.

For more information and the lecture series schedule please click here.

All MCC All the Time

Get in the Holiday Spirit!

Don't forget to join MCC's effort to help families in need in our community! The last day to make a financial donation to the Turkey Trust is December 15th. Click here for details. Clothing and gift donations for the Stuffing and Extra Helpings Trust are being accepted at North Star Lofts December 10th-18th. Click here for details.

Last Tuesday Happy Hour

Unwind from the holiday stress with your fellow members at MCC's Last Tuesday Happy Hour on December 29th. This month's happy hour is hosted by member Barbara Goldner. For details click here.

2010 Activities Announced!

Last week Mill City Commons announced the launch of our new, member inspired 2010 activities. A thanks to all members who completed our most recent member survey and shared their ideas with us! In 2010 members can look forward to: a complimentary technology helpdesk staffed by our guru digital Andy; educational opportunities in the neighborhood through our new partnership with the University of Minnesota's College of Continuing Education ; and a chance to catch up with members and learn about what's going on in the neighborhood at bi-monthly breakfasts hosted in partnership with People Serving People. Of course, Mill City Commons will continue to offer member favorites like our yoga class and play reading series at the Guthrie Theater, duplicate bridge games and happy hours. You can sign up for all of your favorite activities online at www.millcitycommons.org

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here.
Questions or comments? E-mail us at emilyhutchinson@millcitycommons.org

MCC Holiday Office Hours

The Mill City Commons office will be closed December 24th– January 3rd in observance of the holidays. Mill City Commons Executive Director Emily Hutchinson will be out of the office December 15th– January 6th. In her absence Rachel Brown (rachelbrown@ecumen.org) will be available to assist all MCC members December 15th-23rd and January 4th-6th. We appreciate your understanding and wish you a very happy holiday season.