MILL CITY MUSINGS

All MCC All the Time!

School's back- extra credit assignment! A little writing opportunity to get you in the spirit! Mill City Commons wants to hear from you about your MCC experience. Click here to share your story and help us spread the word to future members and supporters!

Thanks! A big thank you to Tom Rose, Professor of Art at the University of Minnesota for giving MCC members an exclusive tour of the newest exhibit at the Regis Center for Art. Check the calendar regularly for upcoming art adventures!

Gotta age well! Don't miss the upcoming MCC-AgeWell presentation on September 21st. We'll be holding the event in the beautiful River Room at the Phoenix and this is a great opportunity to learn how to get the most out of your membership! Click here for details and to register.

Neighborhood Happenings

Third Ward Neighborhood Summit. Wednesday, September 23, 2009, 6 pm

Presented by Council Member (and MCC Member) Diane Hofstede and the Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board. Mill City Commons has been invited to host a booth to share our innovative organization with the Third Ward. Click here for event details.

An Evening Celebrating the River. Thursday, October 1, 2009, 5:30-7:30 pm. The Carlyle, 39th Floor.

Enjoy an evening of celebration, great food and beverages, and a discussion about the water quality issues facing the river and what Friends of the Mississippi River is doing to address them. A minimum $75 contribution requested for each person attending. Event proceeds support the work of Friends of the Mississippi River to protect and enhance the Twin Cities stretch of the Mississippi. Please R.S.V.P. by Thursday, September 24th by contacting Heather at 651-222-2193 Ext. 20 or hhaynes@fmr.org. This event is being co-hosted by several MCC members!

Taste of Lake Street. Sunday, October 4, 2009, 1-5pm.

MCC Member Lou Burdick is the event chair for this year's Taste of Lake Street for Minneapolis Hunger Relief, a food, wine and beer sampling event, featuring "tastes" from 40 restaurants, live music by local artists, games, raffle, silent auction and other prizes! All proceeds go to Minneapolis food shelves. Click here for more details and to purchase your tickets!

A newsletter wouldn't be complete without a reminder that yoga begins this week as well! This class was created especially for MCC members and Guthrie Staff. For details and to register click here.

Is your refrigerator running?

Usually that's the start of a bad joke but one of our members is looking for a good refrigerator repair person. Email recommendations to emilyhutchinson@millcitycommons.org
