MCC Making a Difference: Members gathered on Monday night to hear a presentation from AgeWell, our preferred home health care provider and also shared stories of how MCC and AgeWell are making a difference in their lives. From vendor referrals that make life a little easier to a new group of friends to home health assistance, we heard wonderful stories and want to collect them to tell MCC's story! Neighborhood Happenings

The House Can't Stand. October 22-25th, The Southern Theater

Written and performed by Steve Epp (son in-law of MCC Member Linnea Olesen) The House Can't Stand is the story of a woman alone, isolated in her own home, adrift in her life. Her children gone; her husband dead. A chance phone call leads her on a wild goose chase to prevent a terrible act of violence. Her pursuit leads her through the deepest recesses of her mind, and into the landscape of the American past. When at last she returns home, she discovers a kind of hope buried amid the debris of her life. Click here for more information.
