MILL CITY MUSINGS

Upcoming MCC Activities

September 29: Last Tuesday Happy Hour! Quickly becoming a Mill City Commons tradition! Meet your friends and neighbors at Red Stag Supper Club for happy hour. On Tuesdays the Red Stag offers a low priced dinner special for two. Invite your friends for happy hour and stay for dinner. Dutch Treat! For directions and parking information click here.

October 1: The Politics of American Health Care. Join Larry Jacobs, Director, Center for the Study of Politics and Governance, Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs for a discussion on the complex and often contentious issue of health care. This discussion is a part of the University of Minnesota's Headliners series and Mill City Commons has a table reserved for this timely event! For details and to register click here.

October 6: Stand Up, Sip and Be Counted! Fall is here and so are elections! Join us for a hands-on demonstration of Ranked Choice Voting – used this year in Minneapolis city elections for Mayor, Council Members, Park Board Commissioners, and Board of Estimate and Taxation members. We will use sample ballots to rank your favorite wines, courtesy of Sorella! Jeanne Massey, Director of FairVote Minnesota, is our featured presenter, ready to answer any question you may have about Ranked Choice Voting. For details and to register click here.

Intel Wants to Hear from Us!

Intel has a prototype product they have been developing over the past few years designed specifically for independent seniors and they are looking for feedback from MCC members!

On October 7th Ecumen and Intel are hosting two consumer focus groups (10:00-11:30 am and 1:00-3:00 pm) at the Ecumen home office in Shoreview. If you are interested in participating please e-mail emilyhutchinson@millcitycommons.org.

Neighborhood Happenings

Taste of Lake Street. Sunday, October 4, 2009, 1-5pm.

MCC Member Lou Burdick is the event chair for this year's Taste of Lake Street for Minneapolis Hunger Relief, a food, wine and beer sampling event, featuring "tastes" from 40 restaurants, live music by local artists, games, raffle, a silent auction and other prizes! All proceeds go to Minneapolis food shelves. Click here for more details and to purchase your tickets!

An Evening of Fine Wine and Fine Books. Tuesday, October 13, 2009, 6-8:30 pm. Minnesota Center for Book Arts

MCBA Board member (and MCC member) Cathy Ryan invites you to leisurely peruse new and exclusive book art represented by The Shop at MCBA. Sample a delectable variety of wines and cheeses while viewing the latest offerings from book artists across the nation and beyond. Please RSVP by October 10th at 612-215-2520.
